PROVOKE TEAM

As soon as you enter the resort, you are greeted by a mesmerizing view of the lake and the lush greenery that surrounds it. The resort takes pride in its greenery and continues to add more to enhance its guest experience. The intention behind creating this luxury resort was to offer a holiday experience close to nature, a reflection of their brand ethos. The property's vibe and ethos resonated with the vision of the founders and they believe that it was the perfect fit for their brand. The resort has India's longest swimming pool in a resort at 160 meters. This is one of the most noticeable features of the resort.

"The brand is looking to expand to other parts of India. The target destinations are those that have a strong connection to nature, with many new destinations yet to be popularized. Some of the upcoming projects include locations such as Matheran, Udaipur & Coorg and the group is actively exploring locations like Munnar, Wayanad, Goa & Alibaug amongst other destinations. They look for unique locations in destinations that can connect their guests to nature. Despite the challenges posed by the pandemic, the brand has been able to maintain its high levels of demand, and the future looks bright.

The rebranding and renovations of the hospitality business have been a success, and the company is poised for growth in India and potentially in foreign countries as well. The business is committed to providing guests with a unique and memorable experience, while also ensuring the safety and well-being of its employees and guests", said by the Executive director, Ashish Jatia.
