Ready, set, vacation: Travel to beat the blues

After months of being confined at home, it's finally time to give yourself a much-deserved break and plan a holiday. And what could be better than visiting the magnificent Neemrana Hotels, which are following safety protocols to take care of their guests.

Take your pick from heritage hotels such as Tijara Fort-Palace, located 100 km from the Capital, which offers seven hanging gardens with picturesque views, Neemrana Fort-Palace (120 km) tiered over 14 levels, to rejuvenate body and mind, or the 700-year-old property Hill Fort-Kesroli (160 km) with green fields all around should you want to cycle the countryside. And if you want to drive further, head straight to Deo Bagh in Gwalior that has a garden chequered into nine parts, or experience the rich culture and history of Punjab at The Baradari Palace in Patiala. If you're looking for a hill-side getaway, The Ramgarh Bungalows near Nainital is where you can find yourself in the company of the mountains, enjoying organic Neemrana jams and fresh vegetables from their garden.

Aman Nath, chairman, Neemrana Hotels says, "No getaway easily matches our sprawling hilltop locations. You can drive in your cars to our new protocols to keep you safe. Our chefs have worked out monsoon delicacies to delight your taste buds. You can also learn to cook the dishes you like. Try our farm-to-fork as all vegetables come fresh from next doors."

For reservations, visit www.neemranahotels.com, or call on +91 124 4666 166 (8 am to 8 pm).
