

CULTURE & LIVING

8 staycations in India with breathtaking views that encourage both work and play

Pack your bags and head to these gorgeous rooms with the perfect views

BY KRITI SARASWAT-SATPATHY
27 September 2022

If you have itchy feet and often look for any excuse to travel, the vast options of staycations in India will allow you to WFA (work from anywhere), making it possible for you to balance your 9 to 5 with your penchant for the outdoors. In honour of World Tourism Day — a day marked by the United Nations World Tourism Organisation (UNWTO) to raise awareness about tourism and its impact culturally as well as economically — and with remote working slowly becoming the norm, travelling has received a generous boost. If you are looking for locations where you can stay put for extended periods of time, these staycations in India offer both, stunning views and strong WiFi.

Evolve Back Chikkana Halli Estate, Coorg

ADVERTISEMENT

CONSTELLATION 41MM

Master Chronometer Certified

If waking up in the midst of greenery surrounded by 300 acres of spice and coffee plantations gets you excited, this resort by Evolve Back in Coorg is a must-visit. Designed sensitively by Earthitects, the private pool villas showcase regional architecture with their hand-cut laterite bricks and tiled or thatched roofs. Modern amenities including WiFi allow one to work remotely yet enjoy nature’s bliss. When here, learn about different coffees at the coffee museum, enjoy a session of Ayurvedic massage and dine at the various restaurants with serene views. Explore the plantations in a 4x4 SUV, go bird-watching with their naturalists and learn about the Kodavas through storytelling sessions and dance performances.

Book here