SENSE OF BEING

Yoga and Meditation

75 minutes

In your private Yoga and Meditation session, you will receive the individual attention of your gentle teacher. He will draw from your specific requirements and plan the session tailored just for your needs.

The word 'YOGA' is derived from the Sanskrit word 'Yuj' which means 'to unite' or 'to join' It is about connecting the body and the mind physically, mentally and spiritually. While the best time to practice yoga is early in the morning or in the evenings, you can practice it anywhere and anytime.

It is as much a workout of the mind, as of the body. After a personalized consultation, your gentle teacher will take you through a series of 'Asanas'(body and mind postures), 'Pranayamas' (controlled flow of breathing) and 'Mudras' (emotional, devotional, aesthetic gestures)

“Everything starts with the Mind, and when the Mind is at Peace, We are at Peace and the World is at Peace” said Lord Buddha. His teachings guide us to look at our mind as a separate unit from our body. With such awareness, we can strip our clinging feelings of like, dislike and temporal matters that are the cause of our suffering. With guided meditation, your gentle teacher will hopefully assist you achieve inspiration and peace of mind.

ESSENTIALS: Try and avoid eating 2 hours before a class. Functional wear, like the one provided in your room, should be used. Make sure you drink plenty of water before and after your session so you do not get dehydrated. Should you have any health problems like high blood pressure and heart disease, please alert the yoga teacher prior to the session. Women with menstruation and pregnant women should refrain from yoga practice.

We arrange private sessions for Yoga and Meditation with a days notice.
